

EU-Canada Student Seminar

The Canadian multiculturalism through European points of view: How the diversity is treated in Canada and in Europe?

25th of April 2014

Université Libre de Bruxelles

Institut d'Etudes Européennes Conference room: Spaak
Avenue Franklin.D Roosevelt, 39. 1050 Ixelles, Brussels

13h45 – 14h00: Arrivals of the participants

14h00 -15h00: Opening remarks and presentation of the project

Welcome remarks:

- Serge Jaumain, Vice-Rector and Convenor of the European Network for Canadian Studies
- Denis Robert, Ambassador of Canada in Belgium

“Thinking Canada” The EU-Canada Study Tour:

- Pr. Don Sparling – University of Brno - Canada, the tour, the participant in a nutshell
- Pr. Alexandre Berlin – Honorary director, European Commission: The words of the guide
- Johanna Bouquet - Presentation of the Focus EU – C project

15h00 – 15h30

COFFEE BREAK

15h30 – 17h30: the debate

President: Barbara Delcourt (Professor at Université Libre de Bruxelles)

- The comprehension of diversity and cultural identity in Canada and in Europe
 - Jagoda Tuz (Poland) - From the outskirts of Europe to the crossroads of the EU and Canada. Multiculturalism in the EU and Canada from a polish student point of view
 - Chloé Schonkert (Luxemburg) - Luxemburg and Canada: a subjective analysis of multiculturalism.
 - Pedro Nascimento Pato (Portugal) - Multiculturalism and cultural diversity in Canada and in European Union – a historical point of view
 - Jantine Bressner (Netherlands) - The world is not divided into countries. Multiculturalism in Canada and the Netherlands.
 - Hrvoje Puh (Croatia) - Wanted Dead or Alive: Multiculturalism in Canada and Europe
- General conclusions: Johanne Poirier (Professor at Université Libre de Bruxelles)

17h30 – 18h00: Q&A

18h00 -19h00: Cocktail

- Words of the representative of Quebec delegation in Brussels